festerday's game between Salt Lake and Ogden was as full of eunni as a tarif editorial. The blame can't all be laid onto the home team either, for the Lobsters were as erratic as the White of course there are many details, but they are hardly worth recounting. There were the usual kicks and wran-te and Papa Gimlin was fined $5 for talking back to Umpire Penny. The lat-Mr partook of the same spirit as some the players and many of his decisons were, to say the least, exceedingy mysterious.

The locals scored in the third. Tw errors by Plake and a wild pitch by Prisco Borchers did the business. That's all they got. Only three hits, well scattered, tells the story of Borchers work. They came in the secsed seventh and eighth, and were made by Hanley, Williams and Hawley. Hawley pitched a good game for the home team, but getting miserable sup-port was bumped for 11 hits. Here's the detailed score:

KENTUCKY THOROUGHBREDS. A Pair of Beauties from the Blue Grass State.

On his recent trip East, Attorney L R. Rogers dropped around to the horse show at Lexington, Kentucky, and saw a pair of blue ribbon thoroughbreds and t was a case of love at first sight. Mr. Rogers sought out the owner and purchased the beauties. He doesn't say how much he paid for them but it is understood to be about $3,000. Then he had them shipped to Utah at an expense of about $600, and they arrived here yesterday afternoon. They were taken to McCoy's livery stable where they became the cynosure of many admiring eyes.

They are the handsomest horses ever brought to Salt Lake and they will certainly be an adornment to the driveways of the city. They are about fif-teen hands high and weigh 975 pounds each. They are trotters and it is claimed they can dash off a mile in 2.20 harness.

Mr. Rogers met them at the stables in company with C. K. McCornick, E. V. McCune and others.

Has Interview with Police Commissioner Murphy.

SHE CALLED HIM "FATHER."

He was trritated at this Said He Would Not be Lectured but Ho Got a Caudie One.

New York, Aug. 28 .- Mrs. Carrie Nation arrived in this city today. She had an interview with Police Commissioner Murphy, during which he told her that she would be arrested if she violated the law in this city. Mrs. Nation also called at John L. Sullivan's saloon to see the ex-pugilist in reference to a statement he was alleged to have made to the effect that he "would throw her in the sewer." Sullivan sent down word that he was ill but made an appointment to meet her next Mon-She then went to see Archbishop Corrigan, but he was out of town. When Mrs. Nation entered police headquarters she was shown at once to Commissioner Murphy's room. opening her interview with the com-missioner she said she had called upon him for an account of his stewardship and asked if he did not think New York was an awful wicked place. The commissioner replied in the negative, and Mrs. Nation repeated the question as an asertion, whereupon Mr. Mur-phy requested her to stop, saying he would not discuss the matter her. She continued, however, to ply the commissioner with questions concerning drinking places, all of which he refused to answer. Mrs. Nation said she had come here to do the city some

You don't know what you are talking about," said Commissioner Murphy. "Go back to Kansas and stay there. If you want to do something why don't you do it for your husband?" "I have no husband, now," said Mrs.

Nation. "I sappose you know all about that matter."
"Oh, yes," said Commissioner Mur-phy. "I congratulate Mr. Nation. He ought to be a happy man now."
"Why don't you want to discuss Sunday saloons?" asked Mrs. Nation, and ne commissioner replied angrily:
"Because I don't want to. I won't sit here and be lectured." "What do you mean to say? That you won't discuss good morals in New York? Don't you want to talk about the closing of these hell holes and murder shops. Do you think I am crazy? "Yes, I do," responded Commissione

Murphy.

Mrs. Nation then addressed Mr. Murphy as "Father," which the commissioner warmly resented. But the Kansas reformer persisted. "Father, don't you think a little 'hatchet action' would be good for New York?" she asked.
"If you violate the laws I will have you locked up," responded Mr. Mur-Commissioner Murphy finally terminated the interview by beckoning to his son, who escorted Mrs. Nation from the room. Before leaving town Mrs. Nation said she would return Sunday and visit the tenderloin and see everything that was opened.

Such it Will Not be Paid. New York, Aug. 29.—President Ralston of the Selby Smelting works announces that the reward of $25,000 which was offered for the arrest and conviction of the thief or thieves who stole over $300,000 worth of gold bul-lion on the night of August 5th, will not be paid as such, though the detec-tives and others who were instrumental in recovering the treasure and sending the robber, John Winters, to jail, will be liberally compensated for their services. Winters was under arrest when the reward was offered and President Ralston says his conviction was expected. The company, however, thought he had accomplices and also feared that the gold had been taken out of the country and for these rea sons offer of a big reward was made. It is stated that several of the officers who worked up the case have been settled with, but the amount paid them is not known.

The Smiths who met yesterday came from all parts of the United States, the northern New York members being particularly well represented. I see no reason why the Amalgamated association should not be incorporated if we could get a charter. The delegates to our conventions or the members at large might think differently.

"The only labor union that ever was incorporated was the old Knight of Labor, and it was incorporated by a special act of Congress. This is not generally known. To incorporate the Amalgamated association, it would be necessary to petition the legislature to enact a law allowing it to go before Congress for a special act. Neither body is in session now."
